With respect, I remain, my dear Mr. Chapman, your very sincere and devoted friend, PATRICK JOSEPH MURPHY,

PASTORAL LETTER, Of the Right Rev. Bishop of Vincennes .- John Ste-VEN BAZIN, by the grace of God and the appointment of the Apostolic See, Bishop of Vincennes, to the Clergy and Laity of our Dincess: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ .- Venerable brethren of the Clergy and beloved brethren of the Laity:

From the momentous period, when we were called, in spite of our unworthiness, to the government of this immense Diocess, by Him who has placed Bishops, to rule the account of your souls, the awful responsibility which was then laid upon us, has been always present to our mind, your spiritual welfare has dwelt near our heart, and engaged all our thoughts. We avail ourself of this holy season of Lent to address you some paternal words of edification.

We will not entertain you with the fears we experienced at the unexpected tidings of our elevation to such exalted and responsible dignity; we will simply tell you that we yielded only because we were convinced, after mature reflections and fervent prayers, that it was the will of God, and with trembling we bowed down under this heavy burden, trusting for help in the grace of the Almighty who binds Himself to assist whom he appoints. We knew at the same time, and it was for us a source of great consolation, that we were called to succeed holy men who had laid solid foundations for religion in this interesting diocess. We knew they would constantly apply to the Throne of Mercy in behalf of the people so dear to their hearts; the one already admitted among the just and perfect, the other, like Moses, raising, from his solitude, his hands to heaven, while his unworthy successor fights the enemies of God. We shall constantly keep in sight the bright examples of our venerated predecessors, and notwithstanding our weakness, we will endeavor to walk in their footsteps and to imitate their

Although we feel conscious of our inability to fulfil the responsible duties of our station, we undertake them, with an unlimited confidence in God who chooses the weak things of the world, that he may confound the strong, and accomplishes the great works of his mercy and goodness by instruments apparently the most unfit. We feel pressed forward by the charity of Christ, and we are ready to make any sacrifice and to endure any hardship for the promotion of our holy religiou and your spiritual welfare. Another source of consolation for us is, that we are assisted in the holy work of ministry, by men whose eminent piety, zeal and prudence have deserved to be proposed to the imitation of the world in the farewell address of our venerated predecessor. We trust, dearly beloved friends of the clergy, with your powerful co-operation, to cultivate successfully the precious vineyard committed to our care. We shall, with a holy emulation, endeavor to be models to the faithful in word, in conversation, in charity, in faith, in chastity. Having been inured for many years to the labors we are ambitious of no distinction; we expect to find in each of you a friend and a confident; all united in the bonds of the most intimate charity, having but one mind and one heart, we will walk hand in hand in the path of perfection. We shall cautiously avoid whatever could give to the weak the least occasion of offence, that no reproach may fall on our ministry, and we shall labor to exhibit ourselves in all things as ministers of God, in much patience, in tribulations, in necessities, in labors, in watchings, in fastings, in chasti-ty, in knowledge, in sweetness, in the Holy Ghost, in charity unfeigned, in the word of truth, in the power of God, etc. Let this be our constant study and aim; let us shun all appearance of evil and let our deportment be such that the adversaries of truth may be put to shame having no evil to

Beloved brethren of the Laity, we look to you likewise for consolation: you are to be our joy and our crown, you are to reverence in our person the authority, not of man, but of God, whose ambassador we are to you; the power which God has given to us is for your spiritual advantage, that you may be built up a living temple to the Lord. Be you then children of obedience, and receive with docility the words of life which we address you. Let religion be your constant study; learn of Him who is meek and humble of heart to love one another, even as He has loved you. Shun carefully all dissentions and strife, and be united in one spirit, as you are members of one mystical body of which Christ is the head. Let your lives be pure and holy, since you are the living temples of the Holy Ghost. The night is passed and the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness and put on the armour of light; for now is the acceptable time, now are the days of salvation.

During this holy season of Lent, the Church of God emplays all her tender solicitude to recall signers to repentance and to elevate the thoughts and affections of her children from the sensual gratifications of this world to the divine enjoyments of the next.

The observance of the fast of forty days previous to the resurrection of our Lord, is but a faint imitation of the fast of our blessed Redeemer in the desert; from the apostolic times, we find in the various monuments of christain antiquity innumerable evidences that this fast was faithfully observed by all the professors of the Gospel. Let us place among our most sacred duties the observacue of this solemn yearly fast; it is an authentic monument of the faith and piety of our ancestors, as it is a necessary ingredient of a pennential life. Consult the holy writings and the annals of the religious world and you will find that ever since the fall of our first parents, in whom we have all sinned, the laborious career of penance is the only road to heaven. Unless you do penance you shall perish. What our pious forefathers believed we must believe. What they practised we must practise: the necessity of penance is the same in every age: the truth of the Lord remainsth forever; the Lawgiver is the same, Jesus Christ yesterday, to-day and the same forever.

Your sincere attachment to the faith of the Holy Catholic Church is to us a sure warrant of your fidelity to its practices; for faith without works is dead, and the first work required of sinners, is to bring forth fruits worthy of penance. We hope then, dearly beloved brethren, that you will run with fervour, alacrity, and perseverance the penitential course, which opens before you. May you find in the faithful compliance with this sacred duty, not only atonement for your past sins, but the conquest of your passions and the exaltation of your virtues. The most earnest desire of our heart is to visit you all, as soon as possible, to witness with our own eyes your fervor and piety. We receive daily the most cheering accounts of your zeal and generosity for the promotion of our holy reigion, by erecting churches to the glory of God. We rejoice in the Lord in seeing our spiritual children increasing every day, and thanks be to your good examples and to the increasing exertions of your zealous pastors, our holy refigion is rapidly gaining the ascendency in this State. Prejudices are falling away because our Divine doctrine begins

But, dearly beloved brethren, the number of priests, who devote themselves with such admirable zeal to the arduous work of the missions, is by far too small ; in spite of their untiring exertions, many of you remain, deprived of the consolations of religion. Hence the urgent necessity of preparing young Levities for the sublime functions of the divine ministry; hence the necessity of neglecting nothing for the improve-ment of our Diocesan Seminary. This interesting institu-tution has engrossed the solicitude of our venerated predecessors: it ought to be the constant object of our attention. Already we have procured a more extensive building, already we have selected a worty Superior and formed a faculty of able Professors. But, dearly beloved brethren, in order to support this all important establishment on which rests the hope of religion in this State, we want your generous co-operation. The number of the inmates of our Seminary is greatly increased, and unfortunately the resources we expected from the Propagation of the Faith have been custailed ; hence we are no more able to continue this glorious underiaking, unless you come to our assistance. You are all interested, all equally concerned in this good work. All catholics should evince their zeal for our common faith, by contributing in proportion to their means towards the educa-tion of the future ministers of the altar. What glory for you, catholics of Indiana, to have a distinguished clergy, chosen from among you, whom you may present to foes and friends, a clergy knowing your language, your manners, your wants, a clergy, as it were of your own family! Oh! we know so well already your excellent dispositions and truly generous propensities, that we believe, there is no presumption in us to trust to you the glotious hopes of future generations. Yes, with unlimited confidence, we rely on your united and preserving co-operation, and to your venera-ble brethren of the clergy we commend the good work with full reliance, that they will omit no exertion necessary to insure its success; and to our beloved children of the laity, we need only add that in this glorious undertaking our whole object is to secure for them and their children the greatest of blessings—a zealous and devoted native priest-hand. We feel confident that every congregation will vie in generous efforts towards this holy object. For this purpose, 1st. we exhort our beloved | brethren of the clergy to examine carefully the early dispositions of the children they instruct, in order to point out to us those who appear better qualified for that sublime calling; because our intention is to select for our Seminary, as far as practicable some candidates from each congregation.

2nd. We enjoin on all the clergymen of our diocess to make a collection in every station committed to their case, in behalf of our diocesan Seminary, on Easter day, or any other Sunday previous to Ascension day.

3rd To faward, as som as possible, the amount to us, or to our vicar General, the Very Rev. Maurice de St.

PALAIS, Superior of the Seminary. Until the happy moment when we will find ourself in the midst of you, dearly beloved children, we shall implore upon you, by our earnest prayers, the choicest blossings of Almighty God, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen. REGULATIONS FOR LENT.

2nd. They are to make only one meal a day, excepting Sundays and this meal is not to be taken till about noon. 3rd. A small refreshment called collation, is allowed in the evening, which should not usually exceed the fourth of a full meal. A cup of coffee or tea with a few drops of milk, may be also taken in the morning. are not to be used at the same meal.

We exhort also our venerable brethren to address to their flock, at least twice a week, a familiar instruction, besides the Sunday's sermon and we grant them permission to give, once a week, the benediction of the most Holy Sacrament during Lent.

OSGOOD'S INDIAN CHOLAGOGUE.-For the cure of Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Intermittent and Remittent Fever, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Enlargement of the Liver and Spleen, and all the various forms of billous diseases. The following extract is from the "Farmer's and Emigrant's Hand Book," a valuable work of about five hundred pages recent-ty published by Messrs. Appleton & Co. New York. In chaptes 8, page 235, the author, speaking of the Fever and Ague, remarks: "There is a valuable medicine sold in most of the Western cities, which we can conscientiously recommend for Fever and Ague, and other bilious diseases; it is the India Cholagogue, which is prepared by Dr. Osgood of New York, who has made the bilious disorders of the West his especial study. We are no friend to those medicines usually called potent, but we have had ample opportunity of knowing the invaluable effects of the Cholagogue

The speedy and permanent relief afforded by the Cholagogue, arises from its prompt and healthy action upon the blood, cleansing it from bile and restoring it to purity; thus striking at the root. Its tendency is not simply to suspend disease, but to remove the cause on which it depends. It is equally adapted to all ages and ditions of the system.

My physical energies had been much impaired, by a previous attack of billous fever. Having tried several favorite remedies without relief, a friend in whom I had confidence, recommended Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. I procured a bottle, and followed the accompanying directions. The consequence was, that I had but one paroxyism after taking the first dose, and my general health was rapidly restored without using any other medicine. I disposed with the remainder of the bottle to two other persons similarly afflicted, and with the same results. One of them had been shaking for eight months, and was relieved in two days by the use of the Cholagogue. Boot webbing Shoe thread

BUCK'S PATENT COOKING STOVE.

HIS celebrated Cooking Stove has now been before the public seven years, and is still without a successful competitor, although all varieties of combination have been tried. At the late fairs in the cities of New York and Albany, the first premium was awarded to it, although all the new Stoves of the day were in competition. Its facilities for performing all the operations of cooking are unsurpassed. The oven is nearly double the size of the ordinary Cooking Stoves in use, and is heated with the most perfect university, by which bread, without being turned, will bake on all sides as perfectly as can be done in a brick oven.

three thousand dollars for medicine and medical attendance. I was advised to take a tour to Europe, which I did. I first visited England, I consulted the most eminent physicians there in respect to his case. They examined him and prescribed accordingly. I remained there three months without perceiving any change for the better, which cost me about two hundred and fifty dollars, pocketed by the physicians, and the most I received was their opinion that my son's case was hopeless.

I accordingly left England, and travelled through Scotland, Germany and France, and returned home in the month of November last. I saw your advertisement in one of the N. York papers, and concluded to try Hart's Vegetable Extract, seeing your statements and certificates of so many cures, some of twenty and thirty years' standing, and I can assure you that I am not sorry I did so, as by the use of Hart's Vegetable Extract alone, he was restored to perfect health. His reason, which was so far gone as to unfit him for business is entirely restored, with the prospect now before him, of life, health and usefulness. He is now 23 years of age, and 27 years and 6 months of this time has been afflicted with this most dreadful of diseases; but thank God, he is now enjoying good health. diseases; but thank God, he is now enjoying good health.

The most skilful physicians Europe, as well as those of our own country, have pronounced Epilep sy (or falling sickness as it may be termed) incurable. We are happy however, to state to our readers that Drs. We speak thus positive, because we have within the last few weeks seen quite a number of research where have been cured by their remedy. of persons who have been cured by their remedy; one of which is a man of unquestionable veracity, who stated to us that he had been afficited with epilepsy in its worst form for nearly 24 years, and had from time to time employed the best medical talent to be found, and all to no purpose, until he placed himself under the treatment of Drs.
